DAY 1

On arrival in the capital city of Azerbaijan, Baku, transfer to the hotel and check-in. Relax and spend the day at leisure, exploring the city, such as the pristine beaches, on your own and shop for souvenirs. Return to hotel.

DAY 2

Relish a scrumptious breakfast and start your half-day city tour of Baku. The first stop of the tour is at Martyr's Lane. Next, head to the Old Town (Ichari Shahar). We then visit the Palace of Shirvanshahs. Later, visit the State Museum of Carpets and Applied Art. Housed in the former Lenin Museum, this impressive collection displays rare Azeri carpets from Azerbaijan, northern Iran and from villages of Georgia and Armenia. Spend the evening on your own trying out some authentic cuisine of the region. Return to hotel.

DAY 3

Enjoy a sumptuous breakfast at the hotel and spend the day at leisure. Alternatively, go on an optional tour of Greater Baku and the Absheron Peninsula. Begin the tour by visiting the Gobustan National Park. Then, head to the Petroglyphs Museum and explore petroglyphs. Continue to the mud volcanoes in Gobustan Reserve. Later, drive to the famous Ateshgah, located in Surakhany village. Then, visit Yanar Dag Mountain which is the most famous and popular tourist site of the “eternal flame” in Azerbaijan. Return to Baku.

DAY 4

After a hearty breakfast, spend the day at leisure on your own. Later in the evening, check-out from your hotel and transfer to the airport to return home with wonderful memories of your holiday. Bon voyage!
