

Visit

Doha

Located in the east of Qatar, Doha is a beautiful coastal city on the Arabian Gulf and is also the capital of the country. This dynamic city is an amazing blend of mosques, old souks, museums, iconic landmarks, awe-inspiring skyline, shopping malls, and art & culture. Shopping for gold, spices, antique jewellery, and colourful textiles at the Gold Souk and Souk Waqif is an exhilarating experience. Enjoy the splendor of Arabian hospitality in a city which exudes style and luxury.

Doha City Tour

Begin your journey on the outskirts of Doha to visit the camel stables at the Camel race track. Then visit the private Museum of Sheikh Faisal, which is the ideal destination to get a glimpse of the Qatari heritage and culture. Return to city to enjoy lunch at any of Doha's local Arabic restaurants. After lunch, drive along Doha Corniche, as your next stop will be the Museum of Islamic Art. Next, visit Qatar's outdoor Arabian market, Souq Waqif; wander through the alleys of Doha's vintage market and take a journey back in time to experience the hustle & bustle of an authentic Arabian bazaar, with its invigorating aromas of spices and relish various Middle Eastern delicacies.

DAY
3

Desert Safari with lunch

Enjoy breakfast and get ready to explore the city further. Take a trip down south to Qatar's renowned Sealine, where the desert meets the sea. Get into your private SUV and get ready for your adventurous desert safari. After dune bashing, you will be driven to an Arabian seaside camp, that takes its inspiration from the original Bedouin camps of Qatar. In the evening, return to your hotel and relax. After a while, travel to the Katara Cultural Village that is famed for its focal point of arts and culture in Doha and has art galleries, a waterfront promenade with magnificent views and more. Enjoy dinner at one of the traditional restaurants around before you return to your hotel.
